

FICCI comments on GST

“The cooperation extended by opposition to this crucial legislation is the cornerstone of democracy and gives industry

a lot of hope on progress of reforms in the country”. – Harshvardhan Neotia, president, FICCI

New Delhi, 3 August 2016: “GST is one of the most awaited reform measures by the industry. It is heartening to see that there is consensus emerging in passage of crucial GST bill. It is noteworthy that the Principal opposition party has played a constructive role by articulating some of the concerns which have been noted by the government and would help form base of a robust GST framework for India”, said Mr Harshvardhan Neotia, President, FICCI.

“The cooperation extended by opposition to this crucial legislation is the cornerstone of democracy and gives industry a lot of hope on progress of reforms in the country”, added Mr. Neotia.

FICCI MEDIA DIVISION