From motorcycles to booze, US ban on Canadian imports goes into effect
US-Canada relations, already tense, are likely to deteriorate further after the United States went ahead early Tuesday with a decision to ban nearly $1 billion worth of Canadian imports, including alcoholic beverages, dairy products and motorcycles. The ban amounts to barely a ripple in $880 billion worth of a two-way annual trade between the two northern neighbours. But it marks another ratcheting up of President Donald Trump's second-term trade war with America's longtime ally and trading partner.

Indian recyclers seek scrapping of pre-shipment inspection, letter shows
India's leading recyclers' body has asked the federal foreign trade directorate to replace existing scrap import rules based on overseas certification with local inspection at Indian ports, according to a letter reviewed by Reuters on Monday. India imports around 13 million metric tons of recyclable metal scrap every year from more than 160 countries, with 2,500 containers entering India every day. In many countries from which India imports scrap, either no authorised inspection agency is available or inspection rests on a single agency, the Material Recycling Association of India said in the letter dated September 19.

CBIC eases paperwork to claim concessional duty on imports from UK
In a trade-facilitation step for companies using the India-UK pact, the Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) has said Form-I need not be filed with every bill of entry — the main customs form submitted when goods arrive in India — to claim lower duty on UK consignments. A customs circular, dated September 24, says a valid Origin Declaration, a self-certification by the UK exporter or producer that the goods meet the pact's origin rules, is enough proof for the concessional rate under the India-UK Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA).
