Homeland Security-2012

Safe and Secure City

August 7-8, 2012

FICCI, Federation House

Tansen Marg, New Delhi

About the Conference

Cities offer greater opportunities to people in terms of higher income and better quality of life, thus stimulating migrations from semi-urban and rural areas. Cities which provide opportunities are also breeding grounds for security related issues such as crime, terrorism, human trafficking, drugs etc. FICCI's initiative on the safe and secure city is an attempt to leverage on the partnerships and technology to aid communities as well as businesses reduce insecurities and create an environment conducive for growth and development.

FICCI in partnership with Bureau of Police Research and Development (BPR&D), Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India, is organizing a two day conference “Homeland Security - 2012: Safe and Secure City” on August 7-8, 2012 at FICCI, Federation House, Tansen Marg, New Delhi. The objective of this programme is to raise awareness, discuss challenges of Safe and Secure City and explore possibilities of using technology in mitigating these challenges.

About FICCI

Established in 1927, FICCI is the largest and oldest apex business organisation in India. Its history is closely interwoven with India's struggle for independence, its industrialization, and its emergence as one of the most rapidly growing global economies. FICCI has contributed to this historical process by encouraging debate, articulating the private sector's views and influencing policy.

A non-government, not-for-profit organisation, FICCI is the voice of India's business and industry.

FICCI draws its membership from the corporate sector, both private and public, including SMEs and MNCs; FICCI enjoys an indirect membership of over 2,50,000 companies from various regional chambers of commerce.

FICCI provides a platform for sector specific consensus building and networking and as the first port of call for Indian industry and the international business community.

Our Vision

To be the thought leader for industry, its voice for policy change and its guardian for effective implementation.

Our Mission

To carry forward our initiatives in support of rapid, inclusive and sustainable growth that encompass health, education, livelihood, governance and skill development.

To enhance efficiency and global competitiveness of Indian industry and to expand business opportunities both in domestic and foreign markets through a range of specialised services and global linkages.
