Industry overview

Plastic industry is making significant contribution to the economic development and growth of various key sectors in the country namely: Automotive, Agriculture, Construction, Electronics, Infrastructure, Healthcare, Textiles, FMCG and many more. It is playing a pivotal role in national economy and nation building. With a size of about Rs. 90000 crores and CAGR of above 10%, the sector is highly employment intensive, employing about 4.25 million persons both directly and indirectly.

Per Capita Polymer Consumption (kg)

Processing Units	>30,000 (mostly small scale)
Processing machines installed	>USD 15 Bn (INR 900 Bn) worth
Installed processing Capacity	26.5 MnMT
Employment	4.25 Million

* 1 USD = INR 61.00

Projected growth and drivers

A versatile range of applications and a favourable cost benefit ratio makes the growth of plastic processing industry inevitable. Technological developments are leading to increased substitution of metals and other materials in our day to day objects, be it apparels, automobiles, consumer goods, or defence & aircraft, by the plastic processing industry. Considering the present low level consumption levels (9.7 kgs per capita in India compared to 45 kgs in China and 109 kgs in USA) compared to the world standards, coupled with the fast increasing domestic demand resulting from, growth in the end use segments, fast urbanisation and focus on infrastructure, the sector has huge potential for growth, waiting to be realised.

Future outlook

With Government's current campaign on 'Make in India' which aims to turn the country into a global manufacturing hub, we hope to see tremendous growth in the plastic processing sector. The plastic processing industry is expected to grow at approximately 10% per annum over the next four years to reach 18 Million Tonnes by 2018.

Plastic processing provides good opportunity in India and the country will be able to encash it with the help of favourable policies and better infrastructure coupled with cluster approach.
