

Study Tour of Students from National University of Maldives 2nd – 7th 2017, Chennai

On the request of the Indian High Commission, Male, Maldives and support from the Department of Tourism, Govt. of Tamil Nadu FICCI TNSC had coordinated for visits for students from the The National University of Maldives from the Environment Management Department.

A 19 Member student accompanies by 2 staff visited Chennai, India for the first time to learn more of the environment management practices and learn about the flora and fauna in Chennai, India.

The visit included many prominent places around Chennai like Pichavaram Mangrove forest, Arignar Anna zoological park, Eco – Park apart from also visiting Centre for Environmental Sciences, Anna University and Madras university for an interactive session with the faculties and students on environmental sciences hosted by Dr. Nallamuthu Godhantaraman, Head, Centre for Environmental Sciences, Adj. Faculty Ocean and Coastal Studies (COCS), University of Madras and Dr. Kanmani, Professor & Director, Centre for Environmental Studies, Department of Civil Engineering, Anna University.

