

Aatamnirbhar Bharat: Potential of Agro and Food Processing Industries

Sunrise Sectors Offering Plethora of Opportunities for Boosting Indian Economy

Recently announced government reforms have laid the foundation laid for our “Annadata” to get their due. The measures and incentives will help in instituting the Agriculture and Food processing sector as “Aatamnirbhar”, a way forward to establish Indian Economy as self-reliant and sustainable. FICCI believes that it is imperative to transform these initiatives into well directed efforts and efforts into the reality for growth of the sector and long-term prosperity of the nation.
