FICCI SAFETY SYSTEMS EXCELLENCE AWARDS FOR INDUSTRY

About the Awards

- Launch of the tenth edition of the Awards after successfully completing nine editions
- Awards are presented to units and firms for recognition of their commitment to safety systems at the workplace.
- Purpose is to benchmark best safety practices along with robustness of the system to enable industry to stand up to emerging global challenges in the area of workplace safety.
- Focus sectors:
 - Construction
 - Manufacturing (including oil & gas)
 - Mining
 - Power Generation

Guidelines

1. Application for the award is for a single unit (site specific in case of construction and mining).
2. Multiple units/sites of a single organization are eligible to apply for Awards.
3. Awards are given in three categories as mentioned below:
 - Large Sized Organization (Organization having either turnover or investment excluding working capital of more than Rs 500 crore)
 - Medium Sized Organization (Organization having either turnover or investment excluding working capital between Rs 100 crore to Rs 500 crore.
 - Small Scale Organization (Organization having turnover & investment excluding working capital, both less than Rs 100 crore)

Note: If either turnover or investment excluding working capital is less than Rs 500 crore and the applicant unit is owned by large organization through the extent of 75% and guided by the systems of large organization, then the applicant unit will be treated as large size organization
4. For the award, category size of the parent organization is considered and not of the unit.
